

File Upload

The file upload widget allows the user to upload files to the server. The developer can control various options, such as how many files can be uploaded, the maximum file sizes, allowed file types, etc.

Processing of the file uploads is handled automatically by Profound UI, and feedback response is given to the RPG application that indicates which files were uploaded.